

What is an International
Baccalaureate

- IB stands for the International Baccalaureate
- It is a qualification you can take at college instead of A Levels, BTECs or vocational qualifications
- It's taught worldwide so is internationally recognised
- The IB encourages critical thinking

EXPLORE SEE BECOME

- It suits academic students with abilities across a range of subjects
- Everyone studies English, maths, a language and then three other subjects
- Subjects are not taught in isolation
- In Sussex you can do the IB at Varndean College
