

Using Our 'How To' Resources - A Guide

Our How To Videos, like our SeeToBe videos can be viewed individually at any time. However, some of our videos work especially well when watched in a particular order. Below we recommend the best viewing sequences so that the videos build on prior knowledge. It's also a great idea to share these videos with parents! More videos to come soon.

For students choosing GCSE Options

Most schools introduce GCSE option process between December and February of year 8 or 9 so it is a good idea to show these videos during this time well in advance of subject choice deadlines.
